

Banking and Finance: MISSION CRITICAL PDFs

OVER 80%

of banking and finance executives see a definite rise in the use of and reliance on PDFs during quarantine and shelter-in-place

MORE THAN 90%

say the number of PDF power users has grown in the last 12 months

20% say it has more than doubled

But only ONE IN FOUR feels very satisfied with their current PDF solutions and 100% OF FINANCE LEADERS say they experience at least some problems with their PDF software

TOP FIVE PROBLEMS WITH PDFs as:

Respondents point to the 56%

Costly license

33%
Lack of features such as e-signature, mobile, scanning, redaction

33%
Poor user experience/adoption

29%
Proprietary lock-in 24%

Managing licenses and usage

PDF POWER USERS are looking for the following features for their mission-critical PDFs:

Electronic signature
59%

Microsoft Office integration
57%

Mobile capabilities
43%

Editing scanned documents
41%

Cross-platform
22%

Conversion to original source file 20%

Advanced editing tools
20%

The findings contained within this infographic are gleaned from a BPI Network Report, "Powering PDF Users in Banking and Finance." The report is based on a survey of 150 banking and finance executives.

CLICK HERE FOR FULL REPORT

